

Sample e-note for Catholics to send to fellow Catholics and pro-Life family, friends, neighbors and others

Hey Bob,

I wanted to write to you today with a quick note about the upcoming Georgia Senate runoff elections. Frankly, I'm really worried about America and our Catholic Church.

First, as a Catholic I am especially concerned that our religious liberty is what's literally at stake if the New Democrats take total control of our government. I know that might sound extreme, but I look around at what's already happening; the government restricting church attendance, governors and city officials closing church services, and even denying funeral services.

However, many Democrat governors said that abortion centers, lottery ticket sales, and liquor stores were necessary to stay open. And as if you listen to the two Democrat Georgia Senate candidates and the New Democrats I am scared to death that more is coming if they are elected.

Second, the Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that all life is sacred, and that it must be protected from the moment of conception until natural death. But did you know that both Democrat Senate candidates in the January 5th runoff support abortion on demand even until birth? And did you know that they want you to pay for those abortions now? They as well as all national Democrats favor using taxpayer dollars for unlimited abortion even though the US Conference of Catholics Bishops disagrees with that policy.

Many Catholic leaders are warning Catholics about voting for these New Democrats. New York Cardinal Timothy Dolan wrote in the Wall Street Journal, "[The Democrat Party] that once embraced Catholics now slams the door on us." Archbishop Carlo Maria Vigano, the former Apostolic Nuncio of the U.S. stated, "What is clear is that Catholics cannot vote for, much less the hierarchy approve, a Catholic politician who does not put the integrity of the Church's doctrine into practice."

Father James Altman, Paster St. Johns the Les Catholic Church in Wisconsin said, "To clueless baptized Catholics out there, you cannot be Catholic and be a Democrat." Cardinal Raymond Burke stated, "[Joe Biden] is not a Catholic in good standing and should not approach to receive communion."

Many of our fellow Catholics believe that the Democrat Party is still the Catholic-friendly party of JFK. But that simply isn't true.

The facts are that in the last 30 years or so, the Democrat party has moved far-Left and hold many Socialist/Marxist views, including anti-God, anti-religion, and especially anti-Catholic.

At the Democrat National Convention this year, the phrase "under God" was left out of the Pledge of Allegiance on two separate occasions. In 2018, Kamala Harris attacked one of President Trump's judicial nominees because he was a member of the Knights of Columbus. And in 2017, Democrat Senators Diane Feinstein and Dick Durbin accused Judge Amy Coney Barret of being too Catholic when Judge Barret was before her committee for a federal judgeship appointment.

It's time for Catholic voters to stand up against religious bigotry and to these assaults on our faith. We simply must re-elect both Republican Senators running in the runoff election to protect and preserve our faith, way of life, and the unborn.

As you go to the polls, keep in mind that Democrat Senators Jon Ossoff and Raphael Warnock have been endorsed by Planned Parenthood and NARAL (National Association for the Repeal of Abortion Laws).

I sure hope you will join me in support of our Catholic faith by voting to re-elect Senators Kelly Loeffler and David Perdue.
